

BROOKDALE HOME & SCHOOL ASSOCIATION ANNOUNCES: Afterschool Programs Returns!

The goal of these programs are to provide Brookdale students with fun and engaging classes that complement what they learn in school each and every day!

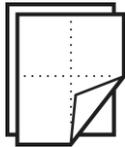

The Spring program will start during the week of April 27 and run through the week of June 1st (a total of 6 weeks). Here's what you need to know about this Spring's classes:

ABOUT THE CLASSES

Kids Cook! Explore taste, textures, colors and nutrition while creating easy and fun food. We will create healthy dinners, picnic lunches and beautiful desserts while learning how to incorporate healthy foods into our everyday lives.

Who: Grades 3-6 When: Tuesdays, 3:30-4:30pm Cost: $60 per child

Origami Math: 'Origami (Jong-i jeop-gi in Korean) is well known as 'the art of paper folding. Today, paper folding is incorporated in education, mathematics, and science! Each week the students will create an object and be exposed to a relevant math topic (ratios, etc.). In addition the students will collaborate to construct a large dragon over the course of the class.

Who: Grades 4-6 When: Wednesdays, 3:30-4:30pm Cost: $60 per child

Yellow Belts: If your child likes to build with Lego bricks - you'll love this! Young students build fun and simple models. This class is designed as an intro to basic engineering. Using Lego Duplo Bricks, build a different model each week while learning the use of gears and making your models move.

Who: Grades K-2 When: Tuesdays, 3:30-4:30pm Cost: $60 per child

Musical Writing: Students combine music, art, and creative writing into one experience! Using a variety of music genres such as pop, rock, jazz, blues, rap, classical as inspiration, students will spend time drawing how the music made them feel and then they will turn their images/visualizations/experiences into stories. Taught by Mrs. Gallagher.

Who: Grades 3-6 When: Wednesdays, 3:30-4:30pm Cost: $60 per child

Readers Theatre: A group of students will read a book then work together to create and perform a production based on the story. This will be taught by Ms. Kelly and Ms. Verrengia.

Who: Grades 1-2 When: Wednesdays, 3:30-4:30pm Cost: $60 per child

Class sizes will be limited to 10-20 children depending on the specific class, and space will be available on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Note that we may cancel classes if there is insufficient interest. If you have questions, please contact Mike McLaughlin at mike@naissancepartners.com or (917) 674-1285.
